Private Weddings Estate in Rhodes

There are places designed to host events.

And there are places designed to be remembered.

Bello Blu Estate is not simply a venue — it is a private world where light, landscape and atmosphere come together to create something deeply personal.

Here, every wedding is not just celebrated, but felt.

Welcome

Set within a protected natural landscape in Rhodes, Bello Blu Estate offers a rare sense of privacy, just moments away from Rhodes Town and the historic area of Kallithea.

With open views towards the sea, Mediterranean gardens and a calm, uninterrupted setting, the estate creates the ideal balance between accessibility and seclusion.

Heritage & Setting

Bello Blu Estate sits on land that once formed part of a model agricultural estate during the Italian era in Rhodes — a landscape shaped with intention, and with care. The residence itself was built in the early 2000s by a family with a long-standing presence in the island's tourism industry, among those who helped lay the foundations of Rhodes' first hotels. That lineage is still felt today.

The estate remains privately held, and in that privacy it brings together heritage, discretion and a quiet kind of contemporary comfort — accommodating up to 17 guests across seven en-suite bedrooms, with event capacity for up to 200. Positioned within a protected forest area, the property offers uninterrupted sea views across the surrounding landscape, and complete seclusion throughout.

A place defined by balance — between history and modern living, nature and design.

A Setting in Motion

A wedding at Bello Blu unfolds naturally, from one moment to the next - never forced, never rushed, but guided by the rhythm of the day and the setting around it. A ceremony framed by greenery and open sea views gives way to dinner under soft light and open skies, and an evening that simply extends, without interruption.

Garden ceremonies allow the landscape to become part of the occasion itself, with the natural canopy of the protected forest providing shade and atmosphere in equal measure. Poolside receptions draw guests toward the water's edge, where the reflection of the evening light creates an atmosphere that no amount of production could fully replicate.

Sunset cocktails spill across the terraces, unhurried, before the night deepens into something more intimate - a late-night celebration held entirely within a private residential setting, where the evening belongs entirely to those who are there.

Each space reveals itself as the day evolves.

Curation & Services

Every wedding at Bello Blu Estate is carefully curated, with a close attention to atmosphere, flow and detail. Working with a trusted network of professionals, the estate ensures a seamless experience built around the couple's vision - from tailored catering concepts and refined bar and cocktail experiences, to music curation whether by DJ or live performance. Floral and event styling, lighting and ambiance design, photography and videography are all woven into the fabric of the day, so that nothing feels considered in isolation, but rather as part of a single, coherent whole.

Everything is considered. Nothing feels forced.

Staying at the Estate

Beyond the wedding day itself, Bello Blu becomes a place to gather and truly connect. When your closest guests stay within the estate, the experience extends naturally — intimacy and ease replacing the formality of conventional accommodation. Elegant en-suite bedrooms open onto shared indoor and outdoor living spaces, all maintained with daily housekeeping and full linen and towel service. The estate doesn't simply host a wedding; it holds an entire world around it.

More than a stay — a shared experience.

What Defines Bello Blu

What defines Bello Blu is not any single feature, but the way everything comes together and the way certain tensions, so often accepted as inevitable, are simply resolved. Sea views, without the exposure that so many clifftop venues impose. Proximity to the city of Rhodes, without any trace of its noise or interruption. Nature in abundance, with the protected forest providing a living, breathing backdrop, without ever tipping into a sense of remoteness or isolation. And privacy — absolute, uncompromising privacy — that allows every moment of the celebration to belong entirely to those who are there. It is a place that asks very little of its guests, beyond their presence. The setting does the rest — holding the occasion with a kind of quiet confidence that comes from years of experience, a genuine love of the island, and an understanding that the most memorable celebrations are rarely the loudest or the most elaborate, but the ones that feel, from beginning to end, entirely and unmistakably like themselves.

Effortless. Refined. Personal.

Let's Create Something Exceptional.

We would be delighted to welcome you to Bello Blu Estate and create a wedding experience that feels entirely your own.
